Fellow Alums,

As next week is the day of giving, we wanted to reach out to you with an idea. Since all of us are beyond 70 years of age we are required to make mandatory distribution from any IRAs we hold.

We can satisfy our RMD (Required Minimum Distribution) requirements by asking to have the amount of our contribution go directly to Wabash. This IRA Charitable gift is not taxable, but does count toward your RMD requirements. So, it provides income tax relief even if one doesn't itemize deductions. You can find more information at wabash.edu/giving/waystogive.

We hope this spring finds you well and happy,

Bob Pollom and Ron Shelby

P.S. Please contact Wabash if you wish for your gift to be used for a specific purpose.
